

NEAT “Promoting Women, Peace, and Security (WPS) in Disaster Response”
WG
Curriculum Vitae of the Participants

< CAMBODIA >

Ms. MALA Boneary is a Deputy Director of ASEAN Plus Three and East Asia Summit Department. Graduated from the Royal University of Law and Economics Faculty of Finance in 2010. She began working as a public servant in 2013 at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of Cambodia. In 2019, she held the position of Deputy Director of the Coordination and Community Affairs Department after serving as a Desk officer and a Bureau Chief in charge of ASEAN Regional Forum of the ASEAN Political Security Community Department. She was given a three-year post as a counselor in the Royal Embassy of Cambodia in Malaysia in 2020. Currently employed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of Cambodia as Deputy Director of ASEAN Plus Three and East Asia Summit of the General Department of ASEAN.

< CHINA >

Dr. HAN Zhili is Research Professor, Institute of Asian Studies, China Foreign Affairs University (CFAU). Graduated from English and Information Management Program at Beijing Foreign Studies University in 1998. Received M.A. from the Department of War Studies at King’s College London in 2005, and Ph.D. on contemporary IR from China Foreign Affairs University in 2009. Joined Institute of Asian Studies, China Foreign Affairs University in 2009 and became Research Professor in 2024. He has served as Director of Asia-Pacific Studies Center since 2018.

< INDONESIA >

Prof. Fatma Lestari is Professor, Faculty of Public Health, Universitas Indonesia, and Director of Disaster Risk Reduction Centre Universitas Indonesia. Graduated from Universitas Indonesia & School of Safety Science, UNSW, Australia. Fatma research area is Community Based Disaster Risk Management (CBDRM), Tourism Village Disaster Risk Management, Emergency Response & Crisis Management, and Industrial Disaster Risk Management.

< JAPAN >

Dr. ONIMARU Takeshi is Professor, Faculty of Social and Cultural Studies, and Vice Dean of School of Interdisciplinary Science and Innovation, Kyushu University. Graduated from School of Law, Kyoto University 1997, Graduate School of Human and Environmental Studies, Kyoto University 2000, Graduate School of Asian and African Studies, Kyoto University 2005. Ph.D. (Area Studies). Lecturer, Centre for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University, 2005. Assistant Professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS), 2006, Associated Professor, GRIPS, 2008, Associated Professor, Kyushu University, 2014, and Professor, Kyushu University, 2020.

Dr. OKAMOTO Masaaki is a Professor and Vice Director of the Center for Southeast Asian Studies (CSEAS) at Kyoto University. He received an MA and PhD (area studies) from Kyoto University. He worked as a JICA expert on regional development in Sulawesi, Indonesia, from 2001-2003.

He joined CSEAS as an associate professor in 2003. He was a visiting senior scholar at Harvard Yenching Institute in 2011 and 2012 and a research fellow at the Southeast Asia Program at Cornell University in 2012. He became a professor at CSEAS in 2017.

【JFIR】

Mr. KIKUCHI Yona is Executive Director and Senior Research Fellow, JFIR. Graduated from Faculty of International Studies at Meiji Gakuin University in 2002. Received M.A. from International Cooperation Research Course (ICRC) of Kyorin University in 2004. Completed Ph.D program without a Ph.D. degree, in ICRC of Kyorin University in 2007. He served as an Special Analyst of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and as a Researcher at Research Institute of Economy, Trade and Industry (RIETI). Joined JFIR in 2008 and became Senior Research Fellow in 2012. He has served as Executive Director since 2023. Concurrently serving as Executive Vice President of the Council on East Asian Community (CEAC).

< Korea >

Dr. Sangsup HA is Research Professor, Institute for Poverty Alleviation and International Development (IPAID), Yonsei University. Graduated from International Relations at Yonsei University in 2002. Received M.A. from International Studies at Yonsei University in 2004, and Ph.D. from C North Korean Studies at Dongguk University in 2017. He served as a Lecturer of Hannam University, Researcher of Institute for Poverty Alleviation and International Development, Yonsei University and Committee Member, South-North Korea Exchange Committee at Mapo-gu in Seoul.

< LAOS >

Ms. Nuanvilay RATTANAKONE is a Director at the Institute of Foreign Affairs (IFA) of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) of the Lao PDR. She received a MA in International Relations from the University of Queensland and Griffith University, Australia in 2013 and 2014 respectively. She is a career diplomat. She joined the MOFA in 2008. She served as the Second Secretary to the Embassy of the Lao PDR to the United Kingdom from 2016-2020 and also served as a non-resident diplomat accredited to the Republic of Ireland and Iceland. Currently, Nuanvilay is a Director of the ASEAN-ISIS and International Cooperation Division at the IFA, Research Fellow and Member of ASEAN Women Peace Registry (AWPR).

< MALAYSIA >

Ms. Izzah Ibrahim is an analyst with the Foreign Policy and Security Studies (FPSS) programme. She graduated from the Australian National University (ANU) with an MA in Strategic Studies. She also completed her double degree at ANU with a BA (International Relations) and a Bachelor of Asia-Pacific

Studies (Asia-Pacific Security). Her research areas cover the security developments of Southeast Asia, nuclear nonproliferation and peacebuilding and conflict resolution. She is also interested in Malaysia's foreign and defence policy, the applications of diplomacy and ASEAN's capacity in managing regional affairs. She has contributed written work and commentary in regional think-tank engagements and media. In 2021, she contributed to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs publication "Focus in Continuity: A Framework for Malaysia's Foreign Policy for a Post-Pandemic World."

< MYANMAR >

Ms. Khin Sabai is presently an Executive Board Member at Myanmar Institute of Strategic and International Studies –MISIS, under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar. Previously, she was a TV Producer & Director of MRTV under the Ministry of Information and retired as Assistant Director. She is a B.A. Graduate majoring in English. She has attended the International Beauty School in Shibuya-ku, Tokyo, in 1978 while accompanying her father who served as Myanmar Ambassador. She took TV Production courses at FCAC-10, V.A., USA in 1984 and working still for MRTV.

< PHILIPPINES >

Ms. Jean Clarisse T. Carlos is a Project Development Officer IV at the Philippine Institute for Development Studies (PIDS), and a Senior Lecturer II at the Institute of Global Affairs and Diplomacy, Miriam College. She obtained her Master's in Public Policy at Meiji University in 2019; Completed her Master's units in Community Development at the University of the Philippines-Diliman in 2017; and her Bachelor's of Arts in International Studies in Miriam College in 2013. She published numerous studies focusing on women financial inclusion, empowerment, and their roles in regional integration, MSMEs, labor migration, and tourism. She also presented her published studies in various national and international conferences across Asia, Europe, and the Americas. Prior to joining PIDS in 2020, she was with the Foreign Service Institute, Department of Foreign Affairs-Philippines for seven years. "

< SINGAPORE >

Dr. Yao Jieli is Research Fellow at the East Asian Institute (EAI), National University of Singapore. She received his PhD in political science from the University of Iowa. She was also a postdoctoral research fellow with Wesleyan Media Project at Wesleyan University. Her current research interests centre on public policy and political communication in times of crisis. Her work has been published in Journal of Public Policy, Journal of Asian Public Policy, Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, and the Forum.

<Thailand>

Dr. Duanghathai Buranajaroenkij is an Assistant Professor at the Institute of Human Rights and Peace Studies at Mahidol University, Thailand. She teaches postgraduate courses on conflict transformation, peacebuilding, and human rights. Duanghathai holds a PhD in Gender and Development Studies from the Asian Institute of Technology, Thailand, and an MA in Conflict Analysis and Management from Royal Roads University, Canada. Her research interests include gender, human rights, security, and peace processes. She has conducted numerous research projects and provided policy recommendations to enhance women's participation in peace processes and politics. In 2022, she received the Woman Outstanding Award in Advancing the Cause of Peace from Thailand's Ministry of Social Development and Human Security. As a lead researcher during 2023-24, Duanghathai is involved in developing Thailand's National Action Plan (NAP) on Women, Peace, and Security (WPS), which is currently undergoing the endorsement process.

< VIETNAM >

Ms. Yen H. Tran is a Master of Environmental Resource Economist specializing in the intersection of economic principles and environmental sustainability. Currently serving as a Research Fellow at the Institute for Foreign Policy and Strategic Studies, Diplomatic Academy of Viet Nam (Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Viet Nam). Yen's academic journey began with a Bachelor's degree in Economics at the National Economics University (Viet Nam), where her fascination with environmental issues led her to pursue advanced studies in Environmental Resource Economics at the Australian National University, under the Australia Award Scholarship. At the Institute for Foreign Policy and Strategic Studies, Yen contributes her expertise to cutting-edge research projects that address the complex challenges facing ASEAN, regional, and global governance. She collaborates with interdisciplinary teams to develop evidence-based strategies for promoting sustainable development, enhancing resilience to environmental risks, and fostering international cooperation. Additionally, her research encompasses critical topics related to women, peace, and security, furthering the understanding and implementation of gender-inclusive policies in disaster response and broader security frameworks.

In Alphabetical Order of Country Name